

What Our Children's Ministry Volunteers Have to Say

About Why They Volunteer

Jason Freeman:

Seeing the amazement and big smile on their face when they understand how much Jesus loves them.

Deanna Howard:

The children are so energetic, silly, and fun. They excitedly learn about God as they sing, draw, and play. Their energy is contagious. I leave with more energy and a brighter outlook. It's addicting. ... A few years ago, I took a break and took a year off from Children's Ministry, but I missed starting my week with the kids. I missed being involved in what they were learning. My kids are in Children's Ministry, so it made sense for me to be involved, too.

Robyn Vera:

I volunteer in children's ministry because with just a small time commitment each week I can tell little ones about the most important thing in this world: that Jesus loves them! It is something they will remember for the rest of their lives. How is that for making a difference?!?!